Exams. Their purpose is to test the understanding of the many concepts introduced in class and their familiarity with the different cultural aspects. Questions are similar with those at the end of the readings. The format will be: short essays, multiple choice, true and false.

Homework. It is found in the Schedule of assignments as ** preguntas del cuestionario **. These are to be answered in complete sentences and due on the date specified on the schedule. Also on specific dates, will present the news of the Hispanic world with a short personal reaction in Spanish. List of websites to use for Latin-American News:

Quizzes Announced or unannounced. Reading assignments for the class include the literary segments and the historical and cultural facts found in the textbook.

Final paper. Each student will write in Spanish a final research paper (6 pages, plus bibliography) on a country or topic about Latin American. The subject needs to be discussed with the instructor beforehand. Details and a list of topics of this assignment will be given in class as the semester progresses.

Presentation. The presentation will be a PowerPoint (10 min) over the final paper the last days of class. This will also serve as a review for the student. Details of this assignment will be given in class as the semester progresses.

COURSE POLICY: You must complete all reading assignments prior to class and be prepared to participate actively in each class with substantive and relevant comments. All work must be submitted on the due date to avoid heavy penalties. There will be no makeup exams for any reason. Class attendance is mandatory and essential to fulfilling the objectives of the course. I do not give any extra credit since it is important that you give your best effort to completing the assignments for the course.

UNIVERSITY PLAGIARISM POLICY: When you use (for example, quote or even summarize or paraphrase) someone else's media, words, data, ideas, or other works, you must cite your source. You should be especially careful to avoid plagiarizing Internet sources (for example, email, chat rooms, Web sites, or discussion groups). It does not matter whether you borrow material from print sources, from the Internet, from on-line databases, or from interviews. Failure to cite your source is plagiarism. Students who plagiarize may receive an "F" or a "0" for the assignment, or an "F" for the course.

ABSENCES: Presence and participation are expected and encouraged in a face to face class. ALL unexcused absences will count as a zero (0) for the day's participation.

~~sponsored event for which you must be absent from class, an official letter from a Tech faculty or staff member must list these dates and be presented to the professor at the beginning of the semester.~~

DISABILITY ACOMODATION: Students with a disability requiring accommodations should contact the Office of Disability Services (ODS). An Accommodation Request (AR) should be completed as possible, preferably by the end of the first week of the course. The ODS is located in the Roaden University Center, Rm 112; phone 362-19

TENTATIVE SCHEDULE OF ASSIGNMENTS (MW): The instructor has the right to make any necessary changes in the schedule to accommodate the material to the progress of the class.
