Engaging Faculty in the Assessment and Improvement of Critical Thinking using the CAT Instrument

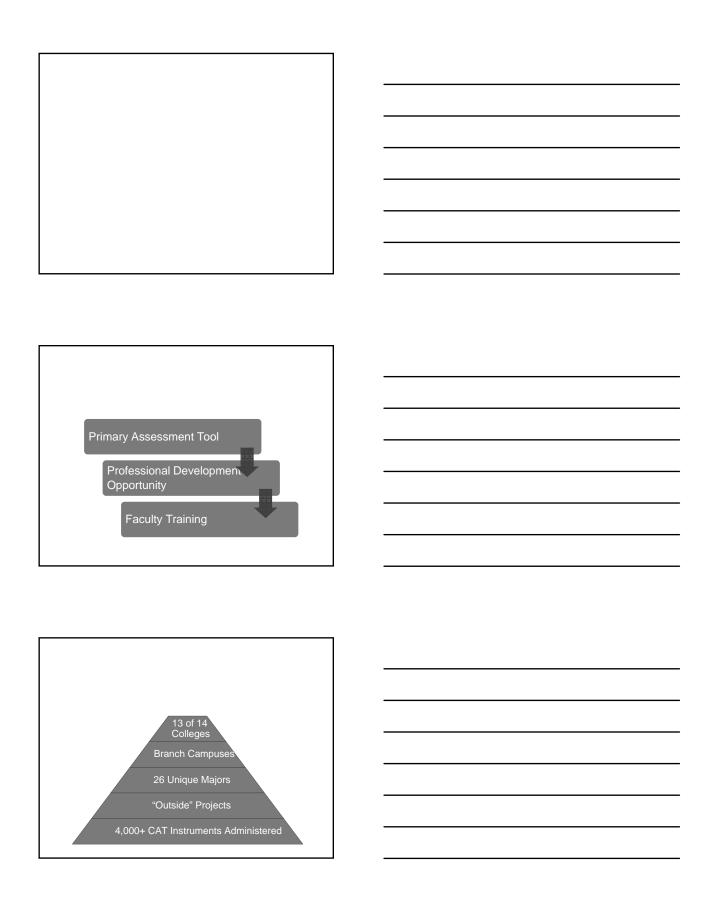

SACSCOC 2017 ANNUAL MEETING

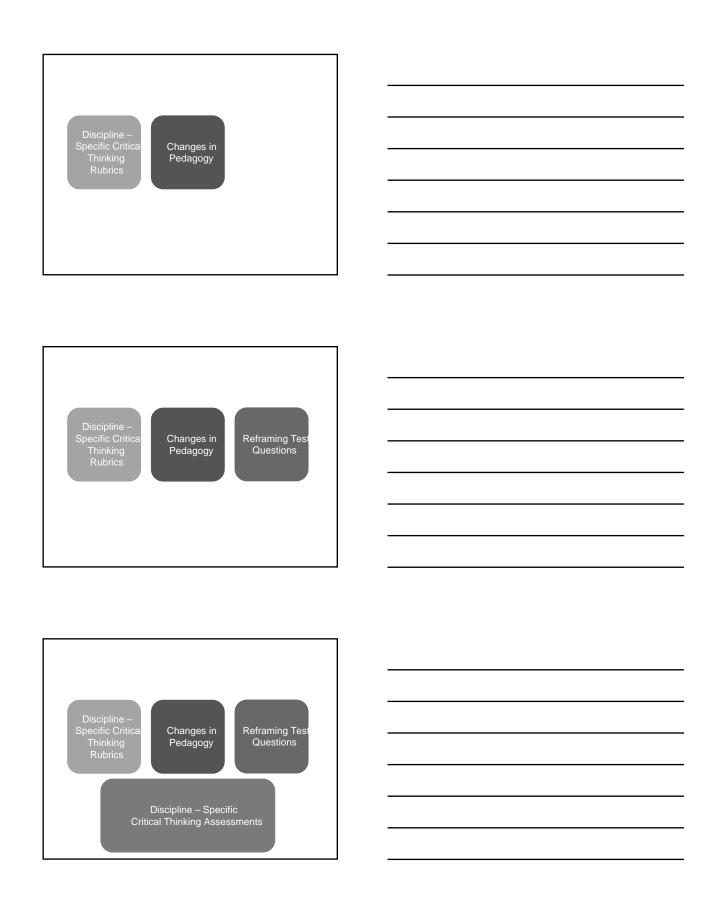

National Science Foundation's TUES Program under grant 102278

Classical Emphas Expanded Contemporary Emphasis

A scientist working at a government agency believes that an ingredient commonly used in bread causes criminal behavior. To support the

	1
f
f
f
, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,
, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,
	1
	1
Why Assess Critical Thinking?
Need to Measure Success for Accountabili
ineed to ineasure Success for Accountabili
Assessment Drives Improvement Efforts
Accessiment Birves improvement Enoug
How We Assess - Determines What Students
	]
Use the CAT to Assess
Critical Thinking
ASSESSING & IMPROVING CRITICAL THE
ASSESSING & IMPROVING CRITICAL THI
Use the CAT as a Model for Better Course Assessments
	]

How you learn determines how you will be able tr use knowledgy Thank You www. CriticalThinkingTest.org