

Academic Affairs is pleased to announce a new grant-funded opportunity available through a newly established faculty academy, the Academy for Course and Program Development. This Academy will infuse faculty development with best practices in instructional design support to assist faculty, departments, and colleges, with rapid course and program development and delivery to ensure course quality and optimal student engagement.

- Intent to submit opened on November 21, 2022.
- Full Proposals are due February 21, 2023.
- Informational sessions will be held on December 12th and January 9th.

For more information or to complete an intent to submit, visit the Academy Information page.

---

? @ € P -

• T p