PROCEEDINGS

Approval of the Agenda

Dr. Loutzenheiser MOVED approval of the agenda, and Dr. Larimore SECONDED the motion. Dr. Cupp stated there had been a request to move agenda item

Changes in the English Qualifying Exam (EQE)

Dr. Baker presented the information on the EQE for the English department. He stated that the EQE as it is currently used is an equation for the 1010 and 1020 courses which is the Freshman composition sequence courses and the Sophomore literature courses. If a student's GPA is below a 2.0, they must take this 30 minute exam. Transfer students who transfer with a D in 1010 or 1020 must take the EQE also to demonstrate writing proficiency. The English department has decided to dismantle the EQE for the current students who take their English classes at Tech. They have to have a C to get in 1010 and 1020 to pass on to Sophomore literature. Transfer students can transfer into 1020 with a D because TBR says they can and that is the main reason for maintaining the EQE. The change would be effective when the General Education requirements go into affect this Fall. Dr. Barker questioned if that had been changed with the general curriculum and a C was now required for transfer students also. Dr. Barker requested that clarification be obtained before going further. Therefore, Dr. Baker withdrew the request for consideration at this time.

Such Other Matters

Dr. O'Connor stated that the lottery scholarship requires students to maintain a 3.0. Therefore, there will be more pressure on placing students in proper courses. The Math department is finding that students are not prepared for some courses. There is no university policy for giving a placement exam in Math. Course selections are done through advising, looking at ACT scores, high school grade point average, and so on. In the past they have given an exam when the students walk in the door (like a pop quiz), but some faculty feel this is inappropriate. The department would like to know if they can give a placement exam to those students who need it? During discussion, it was determined that placement tests are being given now in some areas. Mrs. Tolbert stated that tests can be given on SOAR day with the results available the next day for appropriate advisement. It was suggested that the Math department prepare a proposal to be presented to the Academic Council for review.

Dr. Barker stated that we have received advice from other states regarding the lottery scholarships and how the first year there will be pressure from students and parents because the courses have value to them and that we should take a close look at the Grade Appeals Policy. He asked the Faculty Senate to make sure the Students Affairs and the Academic Affairs grade appeals policy are the same one. The other advice they gave is to make sure that in your syllabus you clearly explain how you will grade. Do not add anything after the semester starts. Follow it as you present it.

On advising, Dr. Barker stated that the fourteenth day of the semester will be used sessions will be held throughout the semester. Parents and students will be given printed material this summer at the SOAR workshops.

Current students this year must have completed 24 hours to be eligible for the lottery scholarship next year. If they do not qualify at the end of this semester or end of summer term, they will not qualify in the future.

Adjournment

The meeting was adjourned at 4:10 pm.
