

for golf. The demolition of the west side of the football stadium is nearly complete; construction should begin sometime in January with a goal of completion by the 2026 football season. The Football Operations Center and