Request from the Center for Innovation in Teaching and Learning (VL112)

The Center for Innovation in Teaching and Learning requests adjacent to the CITL is an instruction room (112) that can be accessed via a hall entrance or through the CITL. This space is needed for the creation of the CITL IDEAL Classroom "Inter-Disciplinary Educational Assessment Lab". This classroom will provide faculty and students with technology and access to CITL staff to help facilitate various tools needed to foster scalable and engaging group work, an effective hybrid environment, and the ability to capture data. The space can potentially be used for TEAMS meetings within the CITL and CAFÉ staff and for across-institution collaboration on technology innovation.

Request from the English Department (FNDH129) (INFORMATION ITEM)

The English Department requested a permanent storage space for large scenic items that don't need to be on hand in the Jere Whitson building. Recent donations to the program have made it impossible for the department to keep everything in JW137 in order to keep the hallways and storage areas safe and clear at all times. Additional storage is requested on the first floor of Foundation Hall. The department already has costume storage in the area behind room 129 and it would provide easy access to
