Approval of the Constitution of The Eclectic Society of Tennessee Technological University - Mr. Boucher

Mr. Boucher MOVED approval of the Constitution of The Eclectic Society of Tennessee Technological University with Mr. Dickson SECONDING. Mr. Boucher said the purpose of The Eclectic Society is to provide an outlet for Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, Transgender (GLBT) and gay supportive individuals to discuss various related issues. A question was asked if this is part of a national organization. Mr. Boucher said it is not part of a national organization but is unique to Tennessee Tech. A friendly amendment was made to Article IV: B to change the wording from "Any member of The Eclectic Society may be elected to office, provided that the member intends to be a student of TTU for the duration of the Fall and Spring semesters" to "Any member of The Eclectic Society may be elected to office, provided that the member will be a student of TTU for the duration of the Fall and Spring semesters." A friendly amendment was also made to add the description of the officers of The Eclectic Society as part of Article IV. A. Mr. Boucher handed out copies of the description of the officers and said this will be
