

TTU School Psychology Programs Recommended Matriculation Plans

These plans are designed to align the programs of study in School Psychology (Masters and Specialist) with the course offerings in order to streamline the advisement process and make the candidates' experience more efficient. The plans allow for some flexibility; however, deviation from a plan may increase the candidates' time in the program.

Current TTU graduate admission policy allows candidates to apply for a program in Fall, Spring, or Summer. Given the nature of course offerings (some every term--some once a year--and some on two-year cycles), and the fact that the complete School Psychology program is a three year program, it is necessary to consider certain years as "On-cycle" or "Off-cycle." For this reason, four plans are proposed:

- 1) Fall Entry On-cycle
- 2) Spring Entry On-cycle (entering Spring before normal cycle)
- 3) Fall Entry Off-cycle
- 4) Spring Entry Off-cycle

Candidates entering Summer will be regarded as "Fall Entry" for purposes of the plan, and will be advised to take Summer classes that do not interfere with their respective plan. The candidate will coordinate the inclusion of any background courses (and the Special Education survey course required of all first-time licensees) with their advisor with the understanding that, in some cases

(NOTE: The School Psychology program requires completion of five background courses: PSY 4050/5050 Learning & Cognition; PSY 4100/5100 Child Psychology; PSY 4150/5150 Adolescent Psychology; and PSY 4250/5250 Introduction to Psychological Testing. With the exception of 4250/5250, these courses may be taken at any time during the candidate's Masters program. Introduction to Psychological Testing must be taken before EDPY 7730 Individual Testing.)
