

the Provost should be focused on defending the faculty and not listening to a small set of unsatisfied students.

Comment: That is right. Teaching themselves has become a buzz phrase among the students. This may be coming from those who are not doing the work. There is no need for a state of alarm.

Comment: Where were the gaitors purchased? Is there any oversight into the purchase of these things? There were some masks distributed earlier that are very thin and not worth wearing. Where did they come from?

Comment: The first ones, back in the summer, they are thicker but there is no pocket for a filter. And no filters were given.

5. Joint Committee on Procedures Report (Douglas Airhart)

This item was eliminated as the committee has not met and does not have a report for this meeting. 1 set of Comment: The McKinney case was recently settled through the course system. The terms of the settlement are sealed so we are not privy to the details. Is the BOT aware of the terms?

Answer: Yes. However, they are sealed and cannot be discussed here.

Comment: In a review of the existing policies, there is no official university policy for a