Honors Experiential Learning Proposal for FALL 2024

Deadline: APRIL 8, 2024

Honors Experiential Learning counts toward the 15-credit-hour block.

_The internship is highly competitive and is awarded based on outstanding qualifications; see documentation.

____The internship requires an advanced level of judgment and skill related to my career; see proposal description.

RESEARCH: Duration_____

Eligibility: REU, NIH, ORNL, or other competitive summer research programs; faculty-mentored research such as -engaged research below.

____I have been accepted by a competitive research program. In your project description, provide the full official name of the funding agency, institution sponsoring the research, name of research project, unit/ department in which the research will occur, name and email for the PI.

__I am involved in a sustained research project related to my major under the supervision of a Tech faculty mentor. Please provide details in your project description.

__Other: In your project description, include rationale indicating why your work warrants honors-level credit.

CIVIC ENGAGEMENT/SERVICE LEADERSHIP: Duration___

Eligibility: Innovative leadership in service requiring substantial judgment and professional standards, either through a formal position or through need-based, proactive project design. Sustainability and evidence of stakeholder engagement preferred.

____I am initiating an effort to meet a documented unmet need in the community. _____I am taking a major leadership role in a civic engagement project. _____I am undertaking research as a significant part of my project. (Your project description should specify the parameters and academic discipline-appropriate methodology of your research.) ____I am working as part of a team. (Your project description should detail your individual role on the team.)

STUDY ABROAD: Name of univ. and location:______ Duration of study: _____

Eligibility: Semester- or year-long programs; selective summer intensive programs may be considered with documentation of honors-level academic requirements. Service abroad must meet requirements for Service Leadership (above). Standard study tours are not eligible.

____I will be taking at least one course at a university abroad in an advanced topic in my major. ____I will be conducting research in my majo participating in a program requiring full immersion in a language other than English or my native language.

Student confirmation of proposal: I verify that my proposal accurately represents the experiential learning activity that I intend to undertake. Changes in the proposed plan must be approved by the signatories below. By signing my full name below, I agree to fulfill the proposal according to the terms and grading criteria in the attached description.

Student Signature: _____

_Date___

IV. APPROVALS: The student is responsible for returning signed forms to the Honors office before the announced deadline.

Eaculty supervisor's confirmation: By signing my full name and title below, I agree to supervise the work detailed in this Honors Experiential Learning proposal. I have specified criteria for grading in the attached project description, and will the Honors office f

Α.