Gradua on rates were calculated by dividing the number of students graduated by the number of students admi ed for the academic year. Students are excluded who have iden fied factors such as family obliga ons, reloca ons, financial barriers, and decisions to change major or transfer to another ins tu on of higher educa on. This is a standard for Accredita on of Baccalaureate and Graduate Nursing Programs in the Con nuous Improvement Progress Report (CIPR). The entry point for Upper Division Nursing (UDN) is the beginning of the sophomore 2 semester with the me period tot been entry point for the sophomore 2 semester with the me period tot been entry point for the sophomore 2 semester with the me period tot been entry point for the sophomore 2 semester with the me period tot been entry point for the sophomore 2 semester with the me period tot been entry point for the sophomore 2 semester with the me period tot been entry point for the sophomore 2 semester with the me period tot been entry point for the sophomore 2 semester with the me period tot been entry point for the sophomore 2 semester with the me period tot been entry point for the sophomore 2 semester with the me period tot been entry point for the sophomore 2 semester with the me period tot been entry point for the sophomore 2 semester with the me period tot been entry point for the sophomore 2 semester with the me period tot been entry point for the sophomore 2 semester with the me period tot been entry point for the sophomore 2 semester with the me period tot been entry point for the sophomore 2 semester with the me period tot been entry point for the sophomore 2 semester with the me period tot been entry point for the sophomore 2 semester with the me period tot been entry point for the sophomore 2 semester with the me period tot been entry point for the sophomore 2 semester with the me period tot been entry point for the sophomore 2 semester with the me period tot been entry point for the sophomore 2 semester with the me period tot been entry point fo
