

Institutional Effectiveness

2018-2019

Program: Counseling and Psychology AM

College and Department: College of Education / Department of Counseling & Psychology

Contact: Barry Stein

Mission: The Department of Counseling and Psychology has the primary mission of offering strong academic programs in counseling and psychology that serve the community and public school system. The graduate program is designed to prepare people for careers in a variety of helping professions. Instruction is a major component of the academic mission of the department in the graduate programs.

4. Delaware Cost StudyA fourth measure of adequate faculty to maintain a quality program is based on analysis of Delaware Cost Study data involving comparisons educational expenditures per Student Credit Hour SCH in the department to national expenditures in similar programs. The Delaware Cost Study findings also provide a way to compare the research productivity of faculty as measured by the amount of external funding generated across faculty in the department in comparison to national data for similar departments.
5. External Evaluations of Graduate ProgramsOur programs are externally reviewed by CAPE and CACRE for accreditation. These external reviews examine the detailed relationship between our courses and the professional standards in the fields our curriculums are designed to prepare students to pursue.

SLO 1: Produce competent professionals

The graduate program continues to meet all requirements for accreditation by CAPE and CACREP. In 2017, the counseling program received CACREP accreditation for 8 years.
