

Center for Innovation in Teaching and Learning

---

Some instructors use the Content area to display course content. Typically, the Content area is divided into modules. Each module will house different content, depending on the structure your instructor has provided. You can view the Content area by clicking on the Content tab in the navigation menu.

