

Income derived from the commercialization of intellectual property in which TTU has an interest is first applied toward any direct expenses incurred by TTU in seeking patent protection or copyright registration or in pursuing commercialization of the intellectual property.

Additional evidence that policies are appropriately published and apply to faculty, staff, and students is the nonenabling disclosures of intellectual property in the TTU Intellectual Property portfolio posted on the ORED website [8].

Faculty, Staff, ac

